The 'Pop' Heard Around the World

On April 19th 1775 "The shot heard around the world" was fired.
This was the beginning of the American Revolutionary War.

At the Inn at Hastings Park we are recreating this historic battle with our own
Battle of the Bubbles

Who will be victorious when this Pop is heard around the World?

$18 for a half glass of:

*2016, Schramsberg, Blanc de Blanc, Brut (Napa Valley, CA, USA)
and*

2014, Gusbourne Estate, Blanc de Blanc, Brut (Kent, England, UK)

Schramsberg (Napa Valley, CA, USA)

Schramsberg's history dates back to the 19th century, when German immigrant Jacob Schram first made his home and started his winery on Diamond Mountain, CA.

Over one hundred years later Jack and Jamie Davies would restore the Schramsberg estate in 1965. They set out to produce sparkling wine – specifically, "America's most prestigious, select and admired sparkling wine; chosen for special guests, special gifts, pampering one's self and expressing one's taste in unique products." Through the decades, this spirit of innovation earned Schramsberg and the Davies worldwide praise and recognition.

Schramsberg has also played a role in world history. The Blanc de Blancs was used for President Nixon's 1972 "Toast to Peace" with China's Premier Zhou Enlai. Schramsberg's sparkling wines have been served at official State functions by every U.S. Presidential administration since.

Gusbourne Estate (Kent, England)

The original Gusbourne Estate in Appledore, Kent dates back to 1410. The de Goosebourne family crest was made up of three geese and can be found in local parish church in Appledore – nowadays, each and every bottle of wine crafted at Gusbourne carries a contemporary goose crest in honor of their heritage. The 'Goosemark' is a symbol of trust, representing our pursuit of uncompromising quality.

In 2004, Andrew Weeber took over the estate with a clear vision and a single goal: to create English sparkling wines that would stand up alongside the very finest offerings from across the globe. The first vines were planted that year.

Whiskey/Bourbon

Bully Boy Distillery, American Straight Whiskey, Boston, MA, USA

“Boston’s First Craft Distillery”

Their mash bill features corn and rye, which creates a sweet overtone with a dry spicy undertone. Vanilla and caramel notes with a nutty finish.

Boston Harbor Distillery, Putnam New England Single Malt, Boston, MA, USA

“Built by Siilas Putnam, the Putnam Nail Factory automated the manufacture of the hot-forged horseshoe nail and supplied them to both sides of the civil war.”

100% two row malted barley and pure water from the Quabbin reservoir. Smooth, complex with lots of character. A lingering finish of chocolate and coffee notes.

Triple Eight Distillery, Nor’Easter Bourbon, Nantucket, MA, USA

“Nor’easters are storms found on the Eastern seaboard. The winds rotate in a counterclockwise direction, generating a northeastern wind around the North side of storm.

This is the origin of Nor’easter. “

The mash bill is corn, malted barley, and malted rye. The distillery uses barrels that were previously used for Cognac or sauternes to “marry” the different bourbons giving them different qualities, through vatting and rebarreling.

Sons of Liberty, Uprising, American Single Malt Whiskey, South Kingstown, RI, USA

“every revolution starts with an uprising”

100% malted barley, featuring the darker malts traditionally used in stout beers, they have double distilled it to create a clean and complex whiskey. vanilla, caramel, mocha and coffee flavors.

Mad River Distillers, Revolutionary Rye Whiskey, Waitsfield, VT, USA

“1799 Rye was very popular. Between the combination of Prohibition and the availability of cheaper alternative grains, rye gradually fell out of favor. Small American craft distilleries have been bringing it back.”

This whiskey is carefully fermented with local and organic rye. It’s earthy and peppery with hints of walnut, berry and tropical spice.

They use all rye mash from three distinct rye varieties, including chocolate malted rye, all rye mash bill, and toasted rye.
